VOL. XIX.]

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1848.

[No. 5324.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALTARIAN FEVERS is recommended
HALL'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a course of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obsteinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.
To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative, is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits the back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natura weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Committed

TO my custody some time past as run-aways, a Negro woman and two children. The Negro woman calls herself Jan Butler, and says she is free, and came from Nottingham in Prince George county upwards of seven years ago to this county, where she has lived as a free person ever since. She is 5 feet 2 inches high, of a very dark complexion, and appears to be about 20 years of age—had on when committed an oxburgh shift, an old white cotton petticoat, and a red calico frock.
Her eldest child is a boy, who is called Thomas—of about 5 years old. The other is a girl, who is called Anne, also of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 3 years old. The owner is desired to come and take them away; otherwise they will be sold as the law directs, for their prison fees, &c.
THO. A. DAVIS,
Sheriff of Charles County.

Ten Dollars Reward.
WILL be given by the subscriber, living near Haymarket, in Princewilliam County, for the recovery of a horse, which strayed or was stolen from her farm, on the night of the 13th of April last. The above named horse is 5 or 6 years old, of blood bay color, 15 hands high, long switch tail, rubbed on the left side by the harness of the cart or wagon, in either of which he had been used to draw; he has no white marks or brand, and the hair on the top of the head between the ears is worn short.
August 10 SUSANNAH F. GRAHAM.

50 Dollars Reward.
ABSCONDED on Saturday morning, the 15th inst. negro George, or George Griffin, the property of Miss McCall, by trade a nailer, and understands some part of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, scout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of outwitting himself as a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.
A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.
Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring, or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law.

Land for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr.
M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

Baltimore Hospital.
24th August, 1818.
THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients.
Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also be made for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.
The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive; the whole building being now 360 feet in length.
The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.
The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care, and the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable: the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every prize too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.
Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chapman, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.
The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen: Attending Physicians:
Dr. Horatio Gates Jamieson, Atten'g Surg.
Doctors George Brown
John Coulter
John Campbell White
Solomon Birkhead
John Cromwell
Peter Chatard
Ashton Alexander

have been provided for the accommodation of either parties of pleasure or persons on business. There is an excellent spring of water on the place, excelled perhaps by none in the state of Virginia. The dis-

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:
HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Narrows and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikoland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia; combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination; nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.
The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

From Campbell's Poems.
HOPE.
Unfading Hope! when life's last embers burn,
When soul to soul, and dust to dust return, Heaven to thy charge resigns the awful hour,
Ah, then thy kingdom comes, immortal What tho' each spark of earth born rapture fly,
The quivering lip, pale cheek and closing Bright to the soul thy seraph hand convey The morning dream of life's eternal day; Then, then the triumph & the trance begin,
And all the Phoenix spirit burns within!

Eternal Hope! when yonder spheres sublime
Pealed their first notes to sound the march Thy joyous youth began—but not to fade.
When all the sister planets have decayed, When the last flames of livid ether glow, And heaven's last thunders shake the world below
Thou undimmed shalt o'er the ruin smile,
And light thy torch at nature's funeral pile.

A gentleman in the neighborhood of Burntisland, says the Glasgow Chronicle, has succeeded in domesticating a SEAL, the singularities of whose instinct and disposition render it an object of great curiosity. It appears to possess all the sagacity of the dog, lives in its master's house, and eats from his hand. He usually takes it away with him in his fishing excursions, upon which occasion it affords no small entertainment. When thrown into the water it will follow for miles the track of the boat, and although thrust back by the oars, it never relinquishes its purpose; indeed, it struggles so hard to regain its seat, that one would imagine its fondness for its master had entirely overcome the natural predilection for its native element.

However fabulous the following may be, there is contained in it something from which instruction may be derived; in as much as it shews that however far our ambition may lead us, it must finally be subdued:

PARADISE—AN EASTERN LEGEND.
When Alexander had conquered the world and penetrated into the remotest regions of India, he heard of Paradise, and determined to subdue that also. He was told that the river Hithebel led to it, and immediately ordered a fleet to be equipped to carry his troops thither; but previously despatched a few vessels to carry information.—When they had reached the garden of Paradise, his people found the gates shut and before it an aged keeper of singular appearance, and with an extraordinary beard, whom they commanded to open the gates instantly for their master, as he was not far behind them. The hoary keeper smiled and said he durst not admit him unless he could find means to weigh down a feather, which he brought sent, when placed in the balance. The messenger was astonished, for he could not conceive how a small feather—since it was only a light downy feather—could have such weight, and concluded that the old man was jeering him. He nevertheless went and delivered the message. Alexander directed a balance to be brought, and it soon appeared that all the wood and stone, and silver and gold that could be laid in the scale, was not sufficient to coun-terpoise this little feather, which made every thing that was brought fly quickly up, as though the greatest weights had been put down. Alexander astonished at this magical effect, sent once more to inquire what was the meaning of it.

The man gravely answered, that the feather signified Alexander's cupidity and ambition, which were light as down, and yet so heavy that nothing could counterbalance them; but he would tell him how that feather might be outweighed. "Let," said he, "a handful of earth be laid upon it, and it will at once lose its extraordinary power." Alexander perceived the meaning, and was deeply dejected. Soon afterwards he died at Babylon without having seen Paradise.

ANGER.
Of all the passions there is none so extravagant and outrageous as that of anger—other passions solicit and mislead us, but this runs away with us by force, and hurries us as well to our own as another's ruin. It fills many times upon the wrong person and discharges itself upon the innocent instead of the guilty, and makes the most trivial offences to be capital; and punishes an inconsiderate word perhaps with infamy or death. It allows a man neither time nor means for defence, but judges a cause without hearing it, and admits of no mediation.

The tribute one day paid by the greatest man and ablest statesman in our era, to the excellence of Shakespeare as an instructor in history and political science, was not misapplied. I have reperused the historical plays of that great poet lately with much attention, and I do not hesitate to pronounce them the best foundation which can be laid in youthful minds for a correct superstructure of historical knowledge, and above all, for giving them a keen relish for the study of that branch of education. In this view, therefore, I regard them as the most useful part of his works, and on that account alone, if there were no other, should consider this author as transcendently superior to all the ancient dramatic writers.
Had Aristotle, who has drawn all his rules of criticism from Æschylus, Sophocles, &c., seen a play fashioned on the chronicles of Greece, and, like those of Shakespeare, to which I allude, representative of the manners of the times, and the characters of the greatest men of his country, he would, no doubt, have set a greater value on such a drama than any other, as peculiarly adapted to the ends proposed in popular entertainments. If it be true that history is philosophy teaching by experience, this kind of it must be the best preceptor, admonishing us of the direful consequences of pride and ambition, of the tyrant's dangers, and the traitor's fate.

In a train of thinking on this subject, I was led a few days ago to compare some of the plays of Shakespeare with the original histories from which the plots were borrowed, and I was more than ever astonished at the power he has displayed in preserving the accuracy of the facts without any sacrifice of the charms of poetry. It is indeed an astonishing effort of genius, the fidelity with which he gives us the detail of history, in the hands of all other writers dry and uninteresting, and bestows upon it all the attractiveness of fancy and fiction. With what a miraculous power of compression has he collected into the narrow focus of dramatic representation the whole series of events which lie scattered in diffuse volumes of old historians; into what a splendid flame does he kindle the stories of the virtuous deeds often sluggishly rehearsed by the chronicler, and in what tremendous magnified deformity has he exhibited the misdeeds and misdeeds of vice, while he preserves, often to a verbal, if not literal exactness the words of his predecessors.—By way of illustration of what I have said, I transcribe a speech or two upon the same point of subject in the language of the prose historian and in that of the dramatic poet, upon a comparison of which it will be found that the latter no farther varied from the former than was necessary to accommodate his metres. The first is the speech of queen Katherine, which she made when she was called upon, July 12, 1529, about the divorce of her and the king.

"She rose out of her chair, came to the king, and kneeling down at his feet said as followeth:
"Sir, in what have I offended you? or what occasion of displeasure have I given you, intending thus to put me from you?
I take God to be judge, I have been to you a true and humble wife, ever conformable to your will and pleasure; never contradicting you; or gain-saying you in any thing; being always contented with all things wherein you had any delight or took any pleasure, without grudge, or countenance of discontent or displeasure. I loved for your sake, all them whom you loved, whether I had cause or no; whether they were my friends or my enemies. I have been your wife these twenty years or more, and you have had by me divers children; and when you had me first, I take God to be my judge I was a maid; and whether it be true or not I put to your own conscience. If there be any just cause that you can allege against me, either of disobedience or matter lawful to put me from you, I am content to depart to my shame and confusion; and if there be none, then I pray you to let me have justice at your hands. The king your father was, in his time, of such an excellent wit, that he was accounted amongst all men of wisdom, to be a second Solomon; and the king of Spain, my father Ferdinand, was accounted one of the wisest princes that had reigned in Spain for many years. It is not therefore to be doubted, but that they had gathered as wise counselors to them of every realm, as to their wisdoms they thought meet; and I conceive that there were in those days as wise and well learned men, in both the realms, as be now at this day, who thought the marriage between you and me good and lawful.
Therefore, it is a wonder to me what new inventions are now invented against me.— And now to put me to stand to the order and judgment of this court, seems very unreasonable; for you may condemn me for want of being able to answer for myself; as having no counsel but such as you assign me, who cannot be indifferent on my part, since they are your own subjects, and such as you have taken and chosen out of your own council; whereunto they are privy and dare not disclose your will and intent.
Therefore, I humbly pray you to spare me until I may know what counsel my friends in Spain will advise me take; and if you will not, then your pleasure be fulfilled." And with that she rose up and departed, never more appearing in any court.

Shakespeare has been censured for the length of the speeches in these tragedies.
But, observe reader! the spirit and contenance of his personages of that speech, and remember that the original title he gave those tragedies were histories.

Katherine. Sir, I desire you, do me right and justice;
And to bestow your pity on me; for I am a most poor woman, and a stranger, Born out of your dominions; having here No judge indifferent, nor no more assurance Of equal friendship and proceeding. Alas Sir,
In what have I offended you? What cause Hath my behaviour given to your displeasure,
That thus you should proceed to put me off,
And take your good grace from me; Heaven witness.

I have been to you a true and humble wife,
At all times to your will conformable; Ever in fear to kindle your dislike, Yes, subject to your countenance; glad, or sorry.

As I saw it inclined. When was the hour
I ever contradicted your desire, Or made it not mine too? Or which of your friends
Have I not strove to love, altho' I knew He were mine enemy? What friend of mine,
That had to him derived your anger, did I Continue in thy liking? Nay, gave not notice
He was thence discharged? Sir, call to That I have been your wife, in this obedience.

Upwards of twenty years, and have been With many children by you: if in the course And process of this time, you can report, And prove it too, against mine honor, aught, My bond to wedlock, or my love and duty Against your sacred person, in God's name, Turn me away; and let the foul contempt Shut doors upon me, and so give me up To the sharpest kind of justice. Please you, Sir,

The king your father, was reputed for A prince most prudent, of an excellent And unmatch'd wit and judgment; Ferdinand.
My father, King of Spain, was reckon'd one The wisest prince, that there had reign'd by many.

A year before it is not to be questioned That they had gather'd a wise council to them
Of every realm, that did debate this business,
Who deem'd our marriage lawful; where-Beseech you, Sir, to spare me, till I may Be by my friends in Spain advis'd; whose counsel

I will improve; if not, I'll the name of God, Your pleasure be fulfill'd.
On the Queen's leaving the court, the Historian puts this speech into the mouth of the King.

"I will now in her absence, declare this unto you all, that she has been unto me as true and obedient a wife, as I could wish, or desire. She has all the virtuous qualities that ought to be in a woman of her dignity, or in any other of mean condition. She is also surely a noble woman born; her condition will well declare it."

Which Shakespeare puts in the following words:
King. Go thy ways, Kate: Thou art the world, who shall repeat he has
A better wife, let him in nought be trusted For speaking false in that; thou art, alone, (If thy rare qualities, sweet gentleness, Thy meekness saint-like, wife-like government, Obeying in commanding—and thy parts Sovereign and pious else, could speak thee out)
The Queen of earthly Queens; she is noble And like her true nobility she has Carried herself towards me.

[Henry 8, Act 2, Scene 4.
Thus faithfully has Shakespeare adhered to historical record in a play which passes with many for being chiefly a coinage of his own creative fancy; and thus it is proved that his historical dramas may be resorted to as authentic. CURIO.

MANFRED.
A dramatic poem by Lord Byron, published upwards of a year since, has been less noticed than his Lordship's other productions. Probably it was well, for it breathes a strain of misanthropic madness, which is almost as repulsive to moral as to critical feeling. Yet that poem contains some beautiful touches which emanate only from that originality of genius, that splendor of imagination, and that deep feeling which Beattie so well describes in his Minstrel as appertaining to the poet of nature.
For instance, in speaking of the "natural music of the mountain reed," he bursts forth:
"Oh that I were
The voiceless spirit of a lovely sound, A living voice, a breathing harmony, A bodiless enjoyment—born and dying With the blest tone which made me."

The above possesses something of the wild spirit of Shakespeare's Tempest.
Again, in describing a lofty cataract—
"It is not noon—the shadow's rays still arch The torrent with the many hues of heav'n, And roll the sheeted silver's waving column O'er the crag's headlong perpendicular And fling its tins of foaming light along.
And to and fro, like the pale courser's tail,
The giant's steed to bestride by death, As told in the Apocalypse."

This last is certainly a very bold figure, yet there is nothing of the false sublime.
I shall conclude these quotations from this most singular poem by the description of a "beautiful spirit" of the poet's own creation, which to my feeling exceeds every line he has written.

"The hues of youth, Carnation'd like a sleeping infant's cheek, Rock'd by the beating of her mother's heart, Or the rose tips which summer's twilight leaves
Upon the glacier's virgin snow,

The blush of earth embracing with her breast;
Tinge thy celestial aspect and make tame The beauties of the sunbow which bends o'er thee."

I am no writer, for I waste not oil; but it affords pleasure to pourtray the beauties of a man of great and original genius, which however, I think, is overshadowed by egotism, and by a misanthropic bordering on affectation. His visionary and abstract mind too much overlooks those delicate strokes of nature for which Burns, Beattie, Campbell and Scott will be always read and admired.

The governor of Guadeloupe has issued an order directing the immediate seizure and sequestration of all goods manufactured of cotton, linen, &c. whether found in shops on the island or in depot. Its obvious object is the encouragement of the manufactures of old France.

The Halifax Royal Gazette, of the 19th August, remarks thus:
"Several American vessels with full cargoes, we are happy to state, arrived here on Sunday last, under the free port act, from the United States."

The editors of the New-York Gazette are indebted to Mr. Topliff, of Boston, for a Gibraltar Price Current of the 8th July, in which they find the following quotations:

Wheat, 3 to 3 6; rice 7 dols; pitch 3; long cloths 7 to 9; beef 16; pork 26 for Irish and 18 for American; American flour 12; Havanna sugar, brown 11; white 15 5; tar 3; hyson tea 18; souchong 5; tobacco Kentucky 11; Virginia 10; Havana 32; American wax 40; Oporto wines 220 to 260; Madeira sweet 300; pipe staves 65 to 70; private bills on London, 60 days, part at 54; and other rates 55; premium on Spanish dollars 3 to 3 1/2, and scarce.

From the New-York Gazette, September 1.
By the Adonis, the editors of the Gazette have received Paris papers to the first of August. They are extremely barren of news; and do not contain a word relative to the late conspiracy.

The verbal news by the Adonis is, that a long spell of dry weather in France, had injured the crops of grain, but the grape vines promised abundance.—Rye flour was 27 francs, rice 50 to 55. American flour was on the rise in consequence of the forbidding prospects of the harvest.

By an ordinance of the 23d July, an Insurance Company, with a capital of four millions eight hundred thousand francs, divided into 192 shares, was formed in Bordeaux.

J. J. Chais, merchant, of this city, has obtained permission to return to France.— He was included in the ordinance of the 24th of July, relative to the expulsion of certain men who were supposed to be enemies of the present form of government.

The Journal of Commerce of the 14th of July, in giving the account of Captain Woodward having fired a gun at the Sea-Serpent, has, by a mistake in translation, made the fooling-piece used on that occasion, an 18-pounder.

The works of the Statue of Henry the Fourth in France, were progressing with rapidity, and says a Paris paper, will soon be completed. Several literary works, including the History of Henry, the poems of the Henriad, and the memoirs of Sully, are to be enclosed in it. They are to be bound in such a manner as to resist the effects of time, for an incalculable period.

The French ship Ville de Rouen, arrived at Havre on the 24th of July, in 26 days from New-York.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.
Extract of a letter received at the office of the Democratic Press.
Late accounts from Venezuela, via St.
Thomas state, that the Patriots commanded by Generals Paez, Arismendi, Burnside, McGregor, and Mariño, will open the campaign in December, with a fine army, and ample military stores.

Gen. Gregor McGregor, from England, has ascended the Oronoke with about 500 English recruits—and several vessels have arrived at Augustura from England with every thing necessary. I saw a list in the hands of one of the gentlemen concerned in these supplies—it stands thus:
From England, 12,000 muskets, 800 quintals powder, a large quantity of ball cartridges, flints, lead, &c. Complete uniforms for 12,000 men, with every necessary article appertaining. Complete armour, mountings, &c. for 2000 cavalry.—Besides this a great quantity of powder, 2500 muskets, and a complete and numerous train of light artillery has been sent to Augustura, by Brian. This I know to be a fact.

If this does not put the Independents in a situation to open the campaign next December in the most glorious manner, they will hardly deserve the name of men.

Gen. Morillo positively has not more than about 1500 old Spanish troops left and the rest Creole, on whom he cannot depend.
Boston, August 19.
Mr. Cobbett.—In the course of Westminster election, orator Hunt, who had proposed himself as a candidate, in the course of a speech from the hustings, alluded to Cobbett's being a candidate for Coventry, and said that he was a friend to Mr. Cobbett. Here there was a cry of "you are supposed to be for that." He proceeded to state that a meeting had been held of the friends of Cobbett, and that Sir Francis Burdett, Major Cartwright, and Mr.

Walker, had been written to, for their aid to a subscription towards the expenses of the election. The two last gave no answer, but the answer of Sir Francis was read by Mr. Hunt as follows:
St. James's Place, June 12.
Sir—I am sorry that a fit of the gout should have so long prevented my returning an answer to your letter; and I am sorry at the same time to state that I cannot, as an honest man, support Mr. Cobbett.
Your humble servant,
F. BURDETT.

Of Orator Hunt, Sir Francis Burdett seems to have no better opinion than of Cobbett.—At the first St. James's meeting in 1816, Sir Francis was appointed with Hunt to present the petition of the meeting to the Prince Regent. In answer to a note, in which Hunt enquired of Sir Francis when he would accompany him on this mission, he received the following:
Brighton, Nov. 19, 1816.

Sir—I have not received any authentic account of the petition you mention. I therefore can come to no determination respecting it. But this I am determined, not to be made a cat-paw of, and not to insult the Prince Regent.
I remain, Sir, your most obedient, humble servant,
F. BURDETT.

LETTERS FROM ASIA.

Extract from a series of letters, written by an American gentleman while in Asia, to his friend in Boston. The writer unfortunately died by the plague, on his passage from Alexandria, in Egypt, to Constantinople, in a Grecian vessel.

[Boston Patriot.
[No. 13.]
The pleasing recollections arising from having perused Eastern tales, which had so often beguiled many of my leisure hours, causing the mind to dwell on scenes that can exist only in the imagination, almost led me to fancy that they would be realized in Asia, those beautiful compositions often executed in our Theatres under the title of "Turkish Music," tending to strengthen the illusion.

The idea of wandering by moonlight among groves of orange and citron, the sensues gratified by inhaling the fragrant perfume of the jessamine and myrtle, while listening to the "Moorish flute" and enchanting voice of some fair Circassian, often during my voyage, banished sleep at the silent hour of midnight. This pleasing dream, however, in a great measure vanished, on discovering that the Turks possessed not the least knowledge of vocal music, and what little they knew of instrumental, consisting only in blowing through a copper trumpet, and beating on something called a drum, in consequence of its bearing a stronger resemblance to that instrument, that to any other.

To describe the sounds would be impossible;—it is absolutely necessary to hear them to form any thing like a correct idea of the impression they make on the imagination—something similar however, may be produced by tying several cats together by their tails, taking care to beat time in unison with their voices with a leather-headed drum stick on a board fence.

The music, if such it can be called, apparently gives great delight to the children, and lower order of society, who are seen running after the performers, boasting to each other of its superiority over that of the Europeans.

A Turkish lady who is in the habit of visiting in the family where I reside, fancies she performs remarkably well on the piano forte. Her method is to beat with both hands indiscriminately on any of the keys, and the more noise she makes, the finer she conceives the music. I have never had it in my power to witness this scene, as she is not permitted to enter the house until all the male part of the family are turned out of doors.

The musical instruments used by the Grecians, are the violin and guitar, with another made of the shell of a gourd strung with cat-gut. This, as well as the guitar, is touched with a quill instead of the fingers, and they are universally accompanied by the voice, excepting when used for dancing, at which time the violin is generally introduced. The effect produced by these instruments, combined with the shrill voices of the Greeks, tend merely to prove that the minds of some are as well gratified with discord, as others are with harmony.

It is certainly extraordinary, considering the proximity of Italy, where the science of music has attained its highest state of perfection, and the continual intercourse dwelling on the borders of the Levant sea, that their style should never have been introduced among the Grecians, Egyptians, or Turks; and that the music of all nations to the eastward of Italy, throughout the known world, with the exception of a few places in Europe, should so far vary from the general ideas conceived of harmony in sounds, as to create disgust, rather than pleasure.

The two last gave no answer; but the answer of Sir Francis was read by Mr. Hunt as follows:

St. James's Place, June 12.
Sir—I am sorry that a fit of the gout should have so long prevented my returning an answer to your letter; and I am sorry at the same time to state that I cannot, as an honest man, support Mr. Cobbett. Your humble servant,
F. BURDETT.

Of Orator Hunt, Sir Francis Borthwick seems to have a better opinion than of Cobbett. At the first St. James's meeting in 1816, Sir Francis was appointed with Hunt to present the petition of the meeting to the Prince Regent. In answer to a note, in which Hunt enquired of Sir Francis when he would accompany him on this mission, he received the following:

Brighton, Nov. 19, 1816.
Sir—I have not received any authentic account of the petition you mention. I therefore can come to no determination respecting it. But this I am determined, not to be made a cats-paw of, and not to insult the Prince Regent.

I remain, Sir, Your most obedient, humble servant,
F. BURDETT.
To Henry Hunt, Esq.

LETTERS FROM ASIA.

Extract from a series of letters, written by an American gentleman while in Asia, to his friend in Boston. The writer unfortunately died by the plague, on his passage from Alexandria, in Egypt, to Constantinople, in a Grecian vessel.

[Boston Patriot, No. 13.]

The pleasing recollections arising from having perused Eastern tales, which had so often beguiled many of my leisure hours, causing the mind to dwell on scenes that can exist only in the imagination, almost led me to fancy that they would be realized in Asia, those beautiful compositions often executed in our Theatres under the title of "Turkish Music," tending to strengthen the illusion.

The idea of wandering by moonlight among groves of orange and citron, the senses gratified by inhaling the fragrant perfume of the jessamine and myrtle, while listening to the "Moorish flute" and enchanting voice of some fair Circassian, often during my voyage, banished sleep at the silent hour of midnight. This pleasing dream, however, in a great measure vanished, on discovering that the Turks possessed not the least knowledge of vocal music, and what little they knew of instrumental, consisting only in blowing through a copper trumpet, and beating on some thing composed of wood and sheepskin called a drum, in consequence of its bearing a stronger resemblance to that instrument, than to any other.

To describe the sounds would be impossible;—it is absolutely necessary to hear them to form any thing like a correct idea of the impression they make on the imagination—something similar however, may be produced by tying several cats together by their tails, taking care to beat time in unison with their voices with a leather-headed drum stick on a board fence.

The music, if such it can be called, apparently gives great delight to the children, and lower order of society, who are seen running after the performers, boasting to each other of its superiority over that of the Europeans.

A Turkish lady who is in the habit of visiting in the family where I reside, fancies she performs remarkably well on the piano forte. Her method is to beat with both hands indiscriminately on any of the keys, and the more noise she makes, the finer she conceives the music. I have never had it in my power to witness this scene, as she is not permitted to enter the house until all the male part of the family are turned out of doors.

The musical instruments used by the Grecians, are the violin and guitar, with another made of the shell of a gourd strong with cat-gut. This, as well as the guitar, is touched with a quill instead of the fingers, and they are universally accompanied by the voice, excepting when used for dancing, at which time the violin is generally introduced. The effect produced by these instruments, combined with the shrill voices of the Greeks, tend merely to prove that the minds of some are as well gratified with discord, as others are with harmony.

It is certainly extraordinary, considering the proximity of Italy, where the science of music has attained its highest state of perfection, and the continual intercourse dwelling on the borders of the Levant seas, that their style should never have been introduced among the Grecians, Egyptians, or Turks; and that the music of all nations to the eastward of Italy, throughout the known world, with the exception of a few places in Europe, should so far vary from the general ideas conceived of harmony in sounds, as to create disgust, rather than pleasure.

Mr. Snowden,
SIR—I saw in your paper of the 29th, that Mr. William Sloops says he means to take no further notice of my publications. I wish he had taken no notice of my timber thimble bore or so clandestinely. Then I should not have the trouble of advertising him. The timber he bore off was in the State of Maryland, and he lives in Virginia, therefore I had to sue him in Alexandria, otherwise I should have presented him to the grand jury. The reason I made it public is, I intend to apply for a writ of replevy to regain back my timber.

Exchange & Broker's Office, Georgetown, District of Columbia.
ROMULUS RIGGS.
AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

Landing
FROM on board the Norfolk packet and for sale, 12 hhds Antigua Rum
August 20 NEWTON KEENE.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of fine fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 300 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.
The Federal Republican, Richmond Enquirer, National Intelligencer, Winchester Gazette, Philadelphia Aurora, Lancaster Journal, and New-York Evening Post, will insert the above once a week for two months, and send their accounts to this office for payment.

Lands for Sale.
I WILL sell on accommodating terms the following very valuable property:
A tract of land containing 340 acres, lying on the Potomac River, at the mouth of Potomack Creek, about sixteen miles below the town of Alexandria; the largest portion of it is level land, with a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building, of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding an extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland; for more than thirty miles up and down the river—located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from the advantage of the best navigation and its proximity to market, an extremely profitable farm.—There are houses upon it for the comfortable accommodation of the negroes necessary for its cultivation. Plaster acts well on all the adjacent country.

A tract containing 334 acres lying about one mile back of the former, a large portion of it is level land, with a stiff soil, in soil similar to the one above mentioned: upon this tract is a tenement in tolerable repair.

A tract containing 100 acres, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles below Alexandria. The whole of this is first rate river bottom; and now completely enclosed. On this tract is that well known fishery called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of 2000 dollars in one season, and where, independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season. Besides the profits of the fishery, is the advantage of Manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, from which, with industry, the whole may be annually manured, so as to produce at least ten barrels of corn to the acre. On the fishery shore is a dwelling house, and houses for holding salt, and curing any number of fish, and for the accommodation of the hands.

A tract containing 236 acres, lying about one and a half miles from the last mentioned tract, more than 900 acres of which are in wood, which would afford 20 cords, at least, per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has of late rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord.—It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots to suit purchasers.—If preferred the wood will be sold standing for so much per acre.

William Mason residing near the head of Mattawoman creek, about 7 miles from Port Tobacco, will show the lands to those who may wish to see them.

For Sale.

A TRACT OF LAND in the county of Fairfax, between the Little River Turnpike Road and that from Leesburg to Georgetown, called SELBY, containing from 5 to 600 acres, situated in the neighborhood of Alexandria, Georgetown, and city of Washington. The land is in good order, with sufficient buildings for the purposes of farming, well watered, wooded, and adapted to plaster. As it is presumed that persons disposed to purchase will view the premises, further description is unnecessary.

Terms of sale liberal, and will be made known on application to John A. and Bushrod C. Washington, near Charlestown; Jefferson county, Virginia, or NOBLET HERBERT.

Alexandria, D. C. July 18

Lexington for Sale.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale. About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and black oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose, together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The other improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, ice-house, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an unintercepted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable

however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams above mentioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters. When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac. It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

For Sale.

UNDER an act of the Legislature of Virginia, passed on the 21st day of February, 1818, all that part of a tract of land lying in the county of Fairfax, and commonly called Retirement, to which the widow and heirs of the late Walter D. Brooke are entitled; as well their interest in that part which has been allotted to Ann Brooke for her dower, as that part of which the said widow and heirs are now in possession. The sale will be made at public auction, on the premises near where the stage road crosses Dogues Run, on Thursday the 17th of September next, if fair, if not the next fair day. The terms are one-half cash, the balance on a credit of twelve months.

WILLIAM H. BROOKE, BENJAMIN M. FROTE, Comrs. August 7

Alexandria, August 4.

WAS committed to the jail of this County, as a runaway, a negro man, who calls himself JOHN WEAKS, and says that he was born free in Prince George County, Maryland, that his mother's name is Sally Green, who lives near the road leading from the Alexandria Ferry to the Eastern Branch bridges adjoining one Hen. Thompson. He was committed to the jail on the 7th May last, and then called himself William Washington, but made his escape the 16th. He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, stout made. Says he is known to Mr. Daniel Moxley, and Henry Thompson, of Maryland. The owner is requested to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

County of Alexandria, April Term, 1818. Henry Boswell vs. The representatives of John Webster, dec and against Rezin Webster.

ON the petition of Henry Boswell, a rule is granted him against the representatives of John Webster, deceased, and against Rezin Webster, to show cause on the 1st day of the next term, why a piece of ground situated in the town of Alexandria, late the property of William R. Webster, should not be sold, and the money divided among the representatives of the said William R. Webster, according to law.

It is ordered, that this rule as to Rezin Webster, be published in one of the Alexandria papers for eight weeks successively. A true copy from the records.

March Term, 1818. BILL IN CHANCERY.

Robert Perry vs. James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father, Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to show cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

For Sale.

A valuable Farm in Jefferson county, Virginia.

BY virtue of a decree of the superior court of chancery for the Richmond district in Virginia, in a suit wherein the executors of General George Washington were plaintiffs, and George Alexander, Thomas L. Alexander, (by Ludwell Lee, his appointed guardian in this case) Ludwell Lee, Richard H. L. Washington, John A. Washington, Bushrod C. Washington and Mary Lee Washington, defendants—will be exposed to sale to the highest bidder, for ready money, on the premises, on TUESDAY, the 15th day of September next, all that tract or parcel of Land, lying in Jefferson county, Virginia, on Bullskin, commonly called Rockhall, containing 540 acres, now in the occupation of John Sanders.

The above tract of land lies about 16 miles from Winchester, and about 6 miles from Charlestown, and on the main road leading from Winchester to Baltimore, city of Washington and Alexandria. It is well adapted to plaster and clover, and is in quality little inferior, if at all, to that of any farm in that rich valley. The improvements on it are a large two-story frame dwelling house, barn and other necessary out houses.—The water is limestone and of excellent quality.

Any person wishing to view the premises will be shown them upon application to John A. Washington or Bushrod C. Washington, living near the land.

Alfred A. Powell, Henry St. George Tucker, Robert Worthington, William Tate, July 1 600 acres of Land for sale.

THIS Tract is situated in Westmoreland county, Virginia, adjacent to Mr. Garrett Hunter's Plantation, and contiguous to the waters of the Potomac. The neighborhood is good—water excellent, and very desirable situations for building. A considerable proportion of the land is well timbered, besides a good deal of cedar, pine and other wood, sufficiently convenient to make it an object for those who may be disposed to send it to market—it is nearly equidistant from Baltimore, Washington and Norfolk.

Any one wishing to purchase may apply to ROGER JONES, Alexandria.

Also, a very valuable LOT, containing 140 acres, being a part of the late Mr. John Turberville's tract—within 6 miles of Georgetown, 8 from the Little Falls Bridge, and near to the turnpike leading from thence to Wileys, in Fairfax county, Va. A great proportion of this land is exceedingly well timbered, and that part which is not, is so recently cleared as to be in an active state for cultivation, and already in a productive condition.—For terms, apply to PHILIP C. JONES, esq. in Leesburg, Va. or to R. JONES, March 30

Charles County Court.

March Term, 1818.

ON application to Charles county court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Smith has resided, two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him.—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 30th day of June 1818.

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO. THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phenomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavored to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo. THOMAS COOPER, M. D.

CONDITIONS. I. The work will be printed on a super-fine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.

II. It will be illustrated with a number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.

III. It will be delivered to subscribers at $12—to non-subscribers at $14, in boards. The London edition sells for $18.

Advertisement.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a scorpion put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

Purchasers will find it to their advantage to apply as the terms will be moderate, and there is navigable water to the spot.

WM. MASON, May 8

James Kennedy & Son.

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tania or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders, Violent cramps in the stomach and back, Lowness of spirits, Indigestion, Loss of appetite, Melancholy, Impurity of blood, Gout in the stomach, Hysterical affection, Pains in the limbs, Inward weaknesses, Relaxations, etc. and debility.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Maister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
